

Do you have 15 minutes a week to help ensure your fellow Catholics are well informed citizens on vital issues to us all? Then you can be a Public Policy Advocate (PPA) for your parish. It's easy. Working with your local parish priest, you can help distribute information provided by Catholic Citizenship (via e-mail) for your parish bulletin or handouts.

□ Essentials for a successful PPA:

- Have access to e-mail on a semi-regular basis.
- Be able to periodically distribute materials and enlist help of others.
- Know some □ public policy issues and Church teaching.
- Possess solid organization and communication skills.
- Have strong relationships with your pastor and parish community.

Key Responsibilities of a parish PPA:

- Work with your □ Diocesan Field Director to inform your community about upcoming events and issues. □

- Provide feedback from parish community and insight into your town's government and issues.
- Encourage participation in Catholic Citizenship in the parish.
